(21B.) Belvedere Hall  Belvedere Hall was built in 1847 and has since been razed. It was the first public theatre in Cumberland. Located on Baltimore Street on the site now occupied by the First Federal Savings & Loan Building, it featured many prominent entertainers of the time. It was the meeting place of high society in the middle 19th Century and especially during the Civil War when both officers and their ladies attended the gala shows and activities held at the theatre. A marker is needed.
